

Southwest Monarch Study (SWMS) Trivia Quiz
(Arizona, New Mexico, Utah, Nevada, Deserts of California)

1. When was the first SWMS tagged monarch from the Southwest found in Mexico? Where was it tagged?
2. What is the longest distance a SWMS tagged monarch migrated? Where was it tagged and recovered?
3. Was the same SWMS tagged monarch ever seen more than once after it was tagged? Where?
4. What was the longest flight for a migrating SWMS tagged monarch from Nevada?
5. What was the shortest flight for a SWMS tagged monarch showing directional flight? When and where was it tagged?
6. Do all migrating SWMS tagged monarchs spend the winter at known CA or Mexico overwintering sites?
7. What was the longest flight for a SWMS tagged migrating monarch from Utah? Where was it tagged and recovered?
8. What was the longest flight for a SWMS tagged migrating monarch from Arizona to CA? Where was it tagged and recovered?
9. How long can the life-cycle of an egg laid in November take to eclose as a new butterfly in the deserts?
10. What is the shortest time from when a SWMS tagged monarch was tagged until recovered at least 100 miles away?